This program aims to improve speaking skills through online conversation. Enjoy one-on-one conversation for 25 minutes every day in your free time. You can choose any topic that you'd like to discuss with any tutor who you'd like to talk with. It suits the students who want to talk more, think about working overseas, or have interests in cultures from abroad. You can't apply any more, but you CAN join next time.

プログラム受講者の声

デイリーニュースやフリートークを選択していました。フリートークでは、先生の出身国と日本の文化の違いや、日本のおすすめの場所などについて話しました。先生たちがフレンドリーだったことが印象的でした。オンライン英会話で英語に耳が慣れ、話すことへの抵抗感がなくなったことが夏季の留学に役立ちました。(生命科学部 Kさん) ⇒30点UP！

主にフリートークを選び、話題は先生が振ってくれました。最初はほとんど話せなかったけど、ほぼ毎日受講していたら、「間違っても話そう」と、咄嗟に出てきた単語を使ってでも会話できるようになりました。このプログラムを通して自信や基礎が身についたので、これからもっと頑張りたいと感じました。(国際文化学部 Iさん) ⇒20点UP！

LERC Teacher Interview

Alexey Kukharuk 先生

“Please introduce yourself.”

I am a full-time English lecturer at KSU. I teach various levels. I also do research. My main research focus is professional development of teachers and instructional design. I don't have a lot of free time recently, but when I do, I play video games.

“Do you think students open their minds in classes?”

I am not sure. I am teaching basic English classes, and most of the lessons are about basic daily activities. If students find anything that opens their minds in my classes, it is more accidental rather than on purpose.

“What is the best environment for you to research and study?”

Time is the most precious resource we have, considering we are all mortal. The best environment for me is the one that allows me to have time for research, study, teaching, family and myself. I am a big proponent of the 8-8-8 concept from former socialist countries: 8 hours of work, 8 hours of sleep, 8 hours of leisure.

“How do you overcome temptation of playing video games when you need to work?”

I don't often have such a feeling. If I feel I want to do something other than work, it means I have worked enough and it is time to take a break.

I also tend to schedule my day hour by hour, so I know when it is time to work and when it is time to rest, and I never schedule too much in one day.

Michael McAuliffe 先生

“Please introduce yourself.”

I am from England. I have one older brother. I like reading. I don't have a good fashion sense. I don't like taking elevators. My favorite color is blue. My favorite Japanese sweet is warabi-mochi. I love cricket.

“Could you tell us what your hometown is like?”

My hometown is called Reading (pronounced /'redɪŋ/ not /'ri:dɪŋ/). Reading is about 40 miles west of London. It is a very busy and noisy town. A lot of famous people come from Reading or have lived in Reading, and the town has an interesting history. Reading was the site of the largest biscuit factory in the world, and the first brand of biscuits was created in Reading. (Biscuits are very important to people in the UK!) The nicest part of Reading is the River Thames, which runs through the town. I wouldn't recommend anyone to visit Reading (there are many nicer places to visit in England), but if you live there, you will probably get to like it.

“What is your favorite place or town in Fukuoka?”

My wife and I live in Chidori, which is a wonderful town. It is on the main JR train line, so it is convenient, and it is on the coast, so we can take walks by the sea. Chidori also has a lovely park with a small lake. I can't say that Chidori is my favorite place in Fukuoka because I don't know many other places, but it is a really nice place to live.

“How to avoid procrastination?”

My father used to tell me, ‘Don't do something today if you can put it off until tomorrow.’ It's a joke, but I think it's also very true. It's human nature to put off doing a difficult task until the last minute. For example, most student work submitted to the homework site is submitted on the day of the deadline. When I have to do work that I don't want to do, I tell myself that I am lucky to have the chance to do it, and I think about all the terrible jobs that I don't have to do. Difficult work becomes easier when you appreciate that you are fortunate to be able to do it.
